

The Telephone Privacy Act that has been put into place by the State of Indiana, in my opinion, is the greatest thing since toilet paper. My wife and I can actually sit down to a meal and not have to worry about being interrupted by people that we have no desire to talk to, such as, telemarketers!!!!!! The CBA are a bunch of IDIOTS if they think that Indiana residents want them calling!!!!!! All they are trying to do is line their pockets with more money. They are the reason why our nation has outrageous debt to income ratio. I will not have a home phone if the CBA wins this battle. I don't want or need any more phone calls trying to sell me stuff that I don't want. If I want or need something I will call.

Thanks for your consideration in keeping the power in the hands of the Residents of the State of Indiana rather than the BANKS.

Sincerely
Adam Burke
